ACTION/DISCUSSION ITEMS

3) Approval of the March 2021 meeting minutes

A. Breitler

The March 2021 meeting minutes were approved (M/S P. Griggs/D. Ysais, P. Bratulin abstains)

4) Treasurer's Report

P. Bratulin

P. Bratulin reported that finances are holding strong and steady, with a combined xxx in all accounts. That's about $5,000 to $10,000 higher than previous years at this point.

5) Membership

C. Colin/P. Anning

P. Anning reported 156 members from 43 institutions.

6) Website update

P. Anning

P. Anning displayed the latest iteration of the website, including the rotating images, college logos, and CCPRO member profiles. He will update photos of CCPRO board members.

7) CCPRO Conferece

Awards: J. Beresford reported approximately 310 entries in 41 categories. Work continues on trophies and certificates, along with the awards video to be shown on April 30. The Board discussed drafting a press release that can be used to localize awards for each district, and the need to post the awards video to the website. K. Huyck suggested offering judges outside the community college system a 1-year membership to persuade them to join for future conferences.

Sponsorships: No update. Everything on track.

Registration: Currently 96 attendees, including sponsors and speakers. Registrations are still coming in.

Student scholarships: Three student winners were identified out of the 15 total applicants. The Board voted to award each a $1,000 scholarship (M/S/U. K. Huyck/C. Colin)

8) Coordinator's Report

P. Anning

P. Anning noted that CCPRO has paid for the after-conference survey. Evaluations are also available for each session. He also has a call in to Whova to ask about technical assistance during conference if needed.

The meeting concluded at 9:18 a.m.
